I. CURRENT STATUS OF THE COMPANY GROUP

1. BUSINESS IN THE CONSOLIDATED FISCAL YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2024

(1) Progress of Business and Results

The Japanese economy during the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 (April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2024) experienced a negative real GDP growth rate in the second half, but that rate for the full year was positive with a rate of increase of nearly 2%, which indicated a recovery trend. The stock market also did extremely well, as exemplified by the Nikkei Stock Average reaching an all-time high of 38,915 yen on February 22, 2024, and topping 40,000 yen in March. On the other hand, future trends, such as the long-term increase in interest rates due to the elimination of the zero-interest rate policy, the ongoing depreciation of the yen due to factors that include the interest rate differential between Japan and the US, and inflation caused by the increase in import prices that is associated with such ongoing depreciation of the yen, require close attention.

Under these circumstances, the Company's consolidated business performance in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 resulted in revenue of ¥1210.5 billion (a 26.5% year-on-year increase), which is a record high. This is mainly due to revenue in the Financial Services Business amounting to ¥1031.4 billion (a 22.0% year-on-year increase).

With respect to profit, in addition to the Financial Services Business remaining strong, the Crypto-asset Business, which had recorded an approximately ¥18.4 billion loss in profit before income tax expense due to the impact of bankruptcies among certain counterparties in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, achieved a turnaround with profit before income tax expense of approximately ¥8.4 billion. As a result, the consolidated profit before income tax expense was ¥141.6 billion (a 38.6% year-on-year increase) and profit attributable to owners of the Company was ¥87.2 billion (a 146.1% year-on-year increase).

With respect to the Financial Services Business, which has been reliably making the largest contribution in terms of both revenue and profit in the Group, the business performance of SBI SECURITIES achieved a year-on-year increase in revenue and profit for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, despite the commencement of the "ZERO Revolution" that eliminated stock brokerage commissions that are paid when conducting online trading of Japanese stocks and started with orders received on September 30, 2023. This is because of the success of diversifying revenue sources and various other measures that have been prepared over four years. The banking business, to which the allocation of management resources has been weighted in anticipation of rising interest rates, has already surpassed the securities business in terms of its contribution to consolidated business performance. SBI Shinsei Bank, which constitutes the core of the banking business, has already achieved a certain level of success in various collaborative measures with the SBI Group—mainly a banking-securities collaboration—and the business performance of SBI Shinsei Bank achieved a significant year-on-year increase in revenue and profit for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, exemplified by ordinary business profit topping ¥100.0 billion for the first time in 13 years since fiscal year ended March 31, 2011.

From the second quarter of the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the segment previously referred to as the “Non-financial Business” has been renamed the “Next Gen Business.” This change was made to enable a closer reflection of actual circumstances with regard to the businesses in the digital asset area included in that segment, as that area will also be closely related to the financial area in the form of security tokens and the like.

(2) POLICY ON DETERMINATION OF DIVIDENDS FROM SURPLUS

With respect to returns to our shareholders, the total amount of return for the dividend payout and share buyback will, for the time being, be approximately 30% of the profit before income tax expense that excludes extraordinary factors, such as gain on sales of stocks of subsidiaries, etc. in the Financial Services Business, and the relevant profit before income tax expense for the Financial Services Business for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 was ¥163.5 billion (deducting a ¥1.5 billion gain on the sale of stocks in an offering of over-allotment shares that was carried out in April 2023 upon the IPO for SBI Sumishin Net Bank, from profit before income tax expense of the Financial Services Business). A payout of a minimum of ¥10 per share will be made as an annual dividend payment, and the annual dividend payment will be determined after giving comprehensive consideration to the adequacy of retained earnings for sustainable growth and present business forecasts, etc.

Based on the aforementioned basic policy and the consolidated business performance for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the Company paid an interim dividend of ¥30 per share in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 and, in addition to that, decided to pay a year-end dividend of ¥130 per share, which includes a dividend of ¥10 to commemorate the 25th anniversary since the Company's founding. As a result, the total annual dividend for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 is ¥160 per share.

Shareholders are kindly requested to offer their ongoing understanding and support of the SBI Group as it continues to evolve through self-transformation in the future.

(3) Outline of Each Business Segment

(i) Financial Services Business

Revenue: ¥1,031,439 million (a 22.0% year-on-year increase)

Profit before income tax expense: ¥164,981 million (an 8.5% year-on-year increase)

SBI SECURITIES (J-GAAP) has succeeded in diversifying revenue sources, which is an initiative that has been conducted over four years, and offset decreases in revenue despite the fact that lost profits of approximately ¥15.8 billion were incurred as a result of the commencement of Japan's first-ever "ZERO Revolution" for orders received on September 30, 2023 (the "ZERO Revolution" refers to the elimination of stock brokerage commissions that are paid when conducting online trading of Japanese stocks), which has resulted in both operating revenue and operating income reaching record highs.

Due to an increase in profit margin and commission revenue associated with an increase in the balance of loans in corporate operations, an increase in installment revenue from APLUS, and the like, SBI Shinsei Bank (J-GAAP) achieved a significant year-on-year increase in revenue and profit. While the mortgage loan business of the equity method associate SBI Sumishin Net Bank has steadily expanded, the Company's investment profits accounted for using the equity method based on IFRS decreased as a result of a partial sale of equity upon listing of shares of SBI Sumishin Net Bank in March 2023 and a decrease in the holding ratio. With respect to SBI SAVINGS BANK in South Korea, while its basic revenues remained strong, its profit decreased as a result of the increase in the burden of loan depreciation due to credit deterioration and increases in delinquency in connection with the continuous economic downturn in South Korea, among other causes.

The number of insurance contracts held by SBI Insurance Group (J-GAAP) has increased steadily, which led to an increase in revenue and profit.

As a result of the above, revenue for the Financial Services Business was ¥1031.4 billion (a 22.0% year-on-year increase) and profit before income tax expense was ¥165.0 billion (an 8.5% year-on-year increase).

(ii) Asset Management Business

Revenue: ¥29,449 million (a 5.3% year-on-year increase)

Profit before income tax expense: ¥4,843 million (a 52.2% year-on-year decrease)

The Asset Management Business achieved a year-on-year increase in revenue that is an all-time high due to the contribution made throughout the year by the business performance of SBI Okasan Asset Management, which joined the SBI Group in November 2022. However, profit before income tax expense was ¥4.8 billion (a 52.2% year-on-year decrease) as there was a reactionary decline of ¥8.0 billion in profit derived from the fee received by SBI Global Asset Management in exchange for the return of the “Morningstar” brand in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023.

(iii) Investment Business

Revenue: ¥88,353 million (a 140.8% year-on-year increase)

Profit before income tax expense: ¥8,288 million (loss) (¥16,661 million (loss) was recorded in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023)

With respect to the fair value appraisal of investee companies, fair value profits and profits arising from sales were recorded for listed stocks, while fair value losses were recorded for some unlisted stocks in reaction to the results of the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, and ¥7.9 billion in foreign exchange losses arising from foreign currency borrowings in silent partnerships (tokumei kumiai) operated by SBI Leasing Services were recorded. Consequently, although the loss in profit before income tax expense was ¥8.3 billion, this constituted a decrease in loss amount from the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023.

(iv) Crypto-asset Business

Revenue: ¥57,142 million (an 88.5% year-on-year increase)

Profit before income tax expense: ¥8,428 million (¥18,429 million (loss) was recorded in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023)

The price of Bitcoin (BTC) reached a record high as a result of the approval of physical ETFs for BTC in January 2024, among other factors. In this environment, profit before income tax expense amounted to ¥8.4 billion, partly due to the contribution of B2C2, which incorporated the expansion of crypto-asset trading overseas.

(v) Next Gen Business

Revenue: ¥26,637 million (a 1.5% year-on-year increase)

Profit before income tax expense: ¥4,952 million (loss) (¥3,253 million (loss) was recorded in the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2023)

With respect to the Biotechnology, Healthcare & Medical Informatics Business, an extraordinary loss was recorded in the 5-ALA-related business due to the reappraisal of raw material inventories for the health food business. In the advanced technology areas, such as Web3 and digital assets, upfront investments have been increasing as the businesses continue to expand globally.

2. MANAGEMENT ISSUES

Since its founding in 1999, the SBI Group has utilized the Internet as its primary channel in Japan and built up a business ecosystem for the Financial Services Business with securities, banking, and insurance as its core businesses, currently forming a globally unique comprehensive financial conglomerate. From the time of its founding, the SBI Group has also been involved in the incubation of venture companies with investments focused on next-generation growth fields in Japan and overseas and with active investment in Southeast Asian countries with high economic growth potential.

Introduction of advanced technologies, such as AI, blockchain/distributed ledger technology (DLT), as well as big data, IoT, and robotics that are compatible with those technologies, is proceeding rapidly in various industries including the financial industry. Against this background, the SBI Group believes it is important to continue actively investing in, and building alliances with, promising companies involved with such advanced technologies, in addition to using these advanced technologies to develop new services and strengthening efforts towards the creation of new financial businesses in the financial services offered by the SBI Group, and in doing so strive for rapid growth through the expansion of businesses that maximize the organizational advantage of the SBI Group's business ecosystem.

Comparison of Quarterly Consolidated Operating Revenue (Net Sales) Before and After the Commencement of the “ZERO Revolution” (millions of yen)

(based on JGAAP)

Areas of particular focus for the SBI Group in its expansion of businesses

1. Spreading the positive effects generated by the “ZERO Revolution” in SBI SECURITIES to the SBI Group’s entire financial ecosystem

SBI SECURITIES commenced the “ZERO Revolution” that eliminated stock brokerage commissions that are paid when conducting online trading of Japanese stocks and started with orders received on September 30, 2023. Although SBI SECURITIES lost an estimated ¥15.8 billion yen in revenue due to the “ZERO Revolution,” it successfully achieved a year-on-year increase in revenue and profit, owing to the success of various measures towards diversification of revenue sources, which have been implemented over more than four years.

This is particularly due to financial income and other trust fee amounts for investment trusts that are included within acceptance fees for the full consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 achieving record highs, as a result of each of the open interest credit balance and the investment trust balance as of the end of the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 achieving record highs. In addition to that, FX revenue and sales of foreign bonds also made a significant contribution, while trading revenue was also a key factor, reaching a record high for the full consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

In addition, SBI SECURITIES will further diversify revenue sources by expanding its trading of foreign stocks, futures, individual stock options, and other commodities and by further strengthening its wholesale-oriented business, including underwriting, offerings and sales, as well as brokerage for M&A.

Account acquisition speed has increased at an accelerated pace, with the number of new accounts opened with SBI SECURITIES reaching approximately 770,000 for the period from January to March 2024 because of the implementation of the “ZERO Revolution,” and the number of securities accounts with the SBI Group amounted to 12.45 million, which is the largest number of accounts in Japan, as of March 31, 2024. It is anticipated that not only will interest in other financial instruments within SBI SECURITIES broaden among customers who open an account with SBI SECURITIES but also that such interest will serve as a gateway to awareness of products and services provided by the SBI Group companies and will lead to the referral of customers toward the SBI Group companies. Accordingly, SBI SECURITIES will strive to further expand the SBI group-wide customer base, which exceeded 50 million as of the end of the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

2. Weighting the allocation of management resources toward the Banking business and promoting thorough strengthening of profitability, in anticipation of rising interest rates in Japan

At SBI Shinsei Bank, the growth in the number of deposit accounts has accelerated since the commencement of simultaneous opening of accounts with SBI SECURITIES in October 2022, and the net increase in retail accounts topped 40,000 accounts for the first time in the single month of December 2023. Of the new accounts opened, more than 70% were opened by customers referred from SBI SECURITIES, and the banking-securities collaboration with SBI SECURITIES has greatly contributed to the expansion of SBI Shinsei Bank’s base of individual customers. With respect to corporations, the network for business and financial corporations has expanded dramatically through revitalization of operating activities and strengthening of collaboration with SBI Group business partners, among other causes.

Owing in part to the steady progress described above, the SBI Group's Banking business, with SBI Shinsei Bank at its core, has already surpassed the Securities business in terms of its contribution to consolidated business performance; however, with the Bank of Japan eliminating the negative interest rate policy and interest rates expected to rise over the medium to long term, SBI Shinsei Bank will (a) strive to further expand its asset scale through M&A as well as the organic growth of SBI Shinsei Bank, in order to further strengthen the profitability of the Banking business, which is expected to be positively affected by rising interest rates, and (b) also robustly promote the "Fourth Megabank" concept, including by further enhancing alliances with regional financial institutions with the pursue of creating a broad-based regional platform with SBI Shinsei Bank at its core.

The Company believes that the repayment of public funds by SBI Shinsei Bank is a great cause for the SBI Group and will be an opportunity for rapid growth in the future. At SBI Shinsei Bank, efforts such as those for strengthening profitability that have been pursued to realize the repayment of public funds have produced significant results in the short term, and as a result, actual net business profit topped ¥100.0 billion for the first time in 13 years in the consolidated business performance for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024. We believe that we are making steady progress on the path toward repayment.

3. Investing management resources in countries with high economic growth potential and promoting integration of domestic and overseas operations

The SBI Group provides financial services, such as securities and banking services, mainly in Southeast Asia, and with the support of high economic growth, each SBI Group company has already reached a stage where it contributes to revenue. In the global south regions, such as the Middle East, Africa, and India, the SBI Group has been actively conducting investing activities and the like while collaborating with influential partners.

In order to further strengthen the profitability of the overseas businesses, the SBI Group will endeavor, for the time being, to have profits from the overseas businesses account for 20% to 30% of the consolidated profit before income tax expense for the Group as a whole, through the establishment of a new Overseas Business Management Division, the development of a system to centrally manage the SBI Group's overseas businesses over a period of about six months, and appropriate deployment of expert personnel in each business area drawn from across the Group under the concept of integration of domestic and overseas operations.

4. Actively expanding various new services and products to accelerate the rapid growth in the digital asset field

Crypto-asset trading companies, such as SBI VC Trade and BITPOINT, provide services that meet the various needs of customers, including staking services that allow customers to receive returns simply by depositing crypto-assets without the need for frequent trading.

Moreover, the SBI Group has formed an alliance with Circle Internet Financial Limited, which issues the USD-denominated stablecoin USDC, to promote businesses for distribution of USDC in Japan. Since stablecoin is a type of crypto-asset linked to movements in the value of legal tender, it mitigates sharp fluctuations in value, which has been a common issue in various crypto-assets, and its use is expected to expand in the future in the area of payments, both in the real world and virtual world.

On December 2023, Osaka Digital Exchange Co., Ltd. established START, which is Japan's first secondary market for security tokens (STs). STs are "digitized securities" that use blockchain technology and are characterized by easy subdivision and trade, and START has proceeded with deliberations regarding the handling of corporate bond STs, etc. in addition to the real estate STs currently listed.

As stated above, crypto-assets utilizing blockchain technology and derivative products thereof have a variety of potential applications, and the SBI Group will continue to strive to create innovative products in the future.

5. Entry into the semiconductor business, which is regarded a national industry by the Japanese government

Semiconductors, which are considered essential to industry, are regarded a national industry by the Japanese government and are indispensable to the realization of the digital society that the Japanese government is striving to create.

However, while global demand for semiconductors is expected to increase, the prevailing conditions in which semiconductor suppliers find themselves have become unstable, due to factors such as tensions between the U.S. and China in the semiconductor field and growing geopolitical risks associated with the concentration of semiconductor foundries in Taiwan. Thus, more now than ever, improvement in Japan's semiconductor self-sufficiency is a key issue.

In addition, Japan is an excellent location for the establishment of semiconductor foundries, due to the presence of numerous semiconductor-related companies with a high international market share for semiconductor manufacturing equipment, etc. and companies that require large quantities of semiconductors in the automobile manufacturing, biotechnology, AI, and other industries and is also amply supplied with water and land, as well as logistics and electric power infrastructure.

Under these circumstances, since the SBI Group has had fortunate ties with Powerchip Semiconductor Manufacturing Corporation (PSMC), which is a major Taiwanese semiconductor foundry that possesses semiconductor manufacturing expertise, and financial and investment functions that the SBI Group has built up offer a great advantage in the development of a semiconductor business, and mutual synergies between semiconductor businesses and financial companies in terms of acquiring new corporate customers can be expected, the SBI Group has determined that there is an excellent window of opportunity to enter the semiconductor field and announced the construction of a semiconductor foundry in Japan in July 2023.

In October 2023, we decided on Ohira Village, Miyagi Prefecture, as the planned construction site for the semiconductor foundry. Having Shimizu Corporation as the general contractor in charge of design and construction, we started a boring survey for the planned construction site in March 2024, and preparations for the construction of the foundry are progressing steadily with the goal of starting construction in 2025 and foundry operations in 2027.

3. Capital Expenditure

The amount of capital expenditure for the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 was ¥83,027 million.

This amount mainly resulted from a capital expenditure made in the amount of ¥73,715 million focusing on enhancement of existing trading systems and software development to provide new services in order to smoothly respond to the increase in the number of orders caused by the increase in the number of customers as well as to provide the customers with expanded services in the Financial Services Business.

4. Financing

In the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, the Company issued the 34th unsecured bonds (three-year bonds) and the 35th unsecured bonds (five-year bonds) in June 2023 in the aggregate principal amount of ¥105,000 million for the issue of the 34th unsecured bonds and ¥45,000 million for the issue of the 35th unsecured bonds, the 36th unsecured bonds (four-year bonds) in September 2023 in the aggregate principal amount of ¥100,000 million, the 37th unsecured bonds (three-year bonds) and the 38th unsecured bonds (five-year bonds) in March 2024 in the aggregate principal amount of ¥53,000 million for the issue of the 37th unsecured bonds and ¥27,000 million for the issue of the 38th unsecured bonds, and unsecured bonds (two-year bonds) under the MTN Program in June 2023 in the aggregate principal amount of ¥40,000 million, in November 2023 in the aggregate principal amount of ¥50,000 million, and in March 2024 in the aggregate principal amount of US $100 million.

4. Summary of accounting policies

(1) Valuation standards and methods of significant assets

① Valuation standards and methods of financial assets

(a) Classification and measurement of financial assets

Financial assets held by the Group are classified into the following designated categories when they are initially recognized on the basis of the Group's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets.

- Financial assets measured at amortized cost
- Debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (hereinafter "debt instruments measured at FVTOCI")
- Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (hereinafter "equity instruments measured at FVTOCI")
- Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (hereinafter "financial assets measured at FVTPL")

(Financial assets measured at amortized cost)

Financial assets are subsequently measured using the effective interest method at amortized cost, adjusted for any loss allowance, if both of the following conditions are met: (i) the financial assets are held within the business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and (ii) the contractual terms of the financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(Debt instruments measured at FVTOCI)

Financial assets are measured at fair value and changes in the difference between the fair value and the amortized cost of financial assets, adjusted for any loss allowance, are recognized in other comprehensive income if both of the following conditions are met: (i) the financial assets are held within the business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and (ii) the contractual terms of the financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. Upon derecognition of debt instruments measured at FVTOCI, the amount accumulated in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss.

(Equity instruments measured at FVTOCI)

Upon initial recognition, the Group designates an investment in an equity instrument that is held for a purpose other than trading as a financial asset measured at fair value through other comprehensive income. This is an irrevocable election and changes in the fair value of such financial instruments are recognized in other comprehensive income. Dividends from the above-mentioned equity instruments are recognized in profit or loss. At derecognition of equity instruments measured at FVTOCI or when a significant decline in fair value below the initial cost is other than temporary, the recognized amount of changes in fair value accumulated in other comprehensive income is reclassified to retained earnings.

(Financial assets measured at FVTPL)

Financial assets, other than those subsequently measured at amortized cost and those measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, are subsequently measured at fair value, and all changes in fair value are recognized in profit or loss.

(b) Impairment of financial assets

The Group estimates expected credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost, debt instruments measured at FVTOCI, lease receivables, certain loan commitments and financial guarantee contracts at the end of the reporting period and recognizes such expected credit losses as a loss allowance. If the Group determines that the credit risk of financial instruments has increased significantly since initial recognition, the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to the lifetime expected credit losses. In the event that the Group determines that the credit risk of financial instruments has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to the 12-month expected credit losses.

The assessment of whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk is based on changes in the probability of a default occurring.

Meanwhile, as for trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component, lifetime expected credit losses are measured on the basis of historical credit losses and other relevant information regardless of whether there has been an increase or decrease in credit risk.

② Valuation standards and methods of non-financial assets

• Investment properties other than right-of-use assets

Investment properties are measured using the cost method and stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss.

• Property and equipment other than right-of-use assets

Property and equipment are measured using the cost method and stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss. Acquisition cost includes the costs incurred directly related to the acquisition of the assets.

• Intangible assets other than right-of-use assets and goodwill

Intangible assets are measured using the cost method and stated at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss.

• Impairment of non-financial assets

Other than deferred tax assets, the Group's non-financial assets are subject to impairment tests at year end. When an indication of impairment exists, the recoverable amounts of the assets are estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment losses, if any. For a cash-generating unit ("CGU"), including allocated goodwill and intangible assets for which the useful life cannot be determined, or which is not available for use, the recoverable amount shall be estimated at the same time every year regardless of the indication of impairment. A CGU is defined as the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of cash inflows from other assets or group of assets.

③ Lease

• Lease as lessee

At inception of a contract, the Group determines whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. The right-of-use asset in a lease transaction is measured at cost, which is initially measured at the amount of lease liability adjusted by initial direct costs and prepaid lease payments. With regard to a lease that has a lease term of 12 months or less or a lease of low-value assets, right-of-use assets are not recognized and lease payments on such lease are recognized as an expense over the lease term.

• Lease as lessor

A finance lease receivable is initially recognized at the lease commencement date of the lease at the net investment in the lease, which is the sum of the lease payments received by the lessor and the unguaranteed residual value, discounted using an interest rate implicit in the lease. Income arising from finance leases is recognized by allocating the net investment in the lease over the lease term. Leases other than finance leases are classified as operating leases, and the operating lease income is recognized over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

(2) Depreciation method for significant non-current assets

• Investment properties

Depreciation is calculated based on the depreciable amount, which is calculated as the initial cost of items of investment properties or an amount equivalent to the initial cost less their residual values. Depreciation is recognized using the straight-line method to allocate their depreciable amounts based on the estimated useful life of each component and charged to profit or loss.

The estimated useful lives of major classes of property and equipment are as follows:

Buildings	15 - 50 years

Investment property is derecognized at the time of disposal or when the investment property is no longer permanently used and no future economic benefits from the disposal are expected. Any gain or loss arising from derecognition of the investment property, which is calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, is recognized in profit or loss at the time of derecognition.

• Property and equipment

Depreciation is calculated based on the depreciable amount, which is calculated as the initial cost of items of property and equipment less their residual values. Depreciation is recognized using the straight-line method to allocate their depreciable amounts based on the estimated useful life of each component and charged to profit or loss. The right-of-use asset is depreciated on a systematic basis from the lease commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term.

The estimated useful lives of major classes of property and equipment are as follows:

Buildings	2 - 50 years
Furniture and equipment	2 - 20 years

The depreciation method, estimated useful life and residual value are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

- Intangible assets other than goodwill

Amortization of intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognized in profit or loss using the straight-line method over the expected useful life, which begins when the assets are available for use.

The estimated useful lives of major classes of intangible assets are as follows:

Software	5 years
Customer Relationship	6 - 23 years

The amortization method, estimated useful life and residual value are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

(3) Recognition and measurement of significant provisions and allowances

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present, legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are measured at the present value of the expected future cash flow using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation.

(4) Recognition of significant revenue and expenses

- Financial income related to investment portfolio

Financial assets measured at FVTPL are initially measured at their fair value and changes in fair value are recognized through profit or loss. Gain and loss related to the sale of financial assets measured at FVTPL are determined as the difference between the fair value of the consideration received and the carrying amount.

- Revenue from contracts with customers

The Group recognizes revenue by applying the following 5-step approach.

Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer

Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract

Step 3: Determine the transaction price

Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract

Step 5: Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

- Income tax expense

Income tax expense consists of current and deferred tax expense, which are recognized in profit or loss, except for those arising from business combinations or recognized directly in equity and other comprehensive income. Current income tax expense is measured at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the taxation authorities using the tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

(5) Employee benefits

The present value of the defined benefit obligation and benefit cost are determined using the projected unit credit method. Changes in fair value, excluding actuarial gains and losses and interest income on plan assets, are recognized in other comprehensive income and transferred from other components of equity to retained earnings as incurred. The net present value of the defined benefit obligation less the fair value of plan assets is recognized as a liability or asset in the consolidated statement of financial position. If the calculation results in the possibility of the Group having an asset in excess of the funded status, the asset is recognized up to the present value of the future economic benefits available from the return of cash from the plan or the reduction of future contributions to the plan.

(6) Other significant policies for preparation of consolidated financial statements

① Accounting for insurance contracts

Contracts under which the Group accepts significant insurance risk are classified as insurance contracts. Contracts held by the Group under which it transfers significant insurance risk related to underlying insurance contracts are classified as reinsurance contracts.

(a) Aggregation

For the purpose of measurement, insurance contracts are aggregated into groups. The Group determines a group of insurance contracts by identifying portfolios of insurance contracts. Each portfolio of insurance contracts comprises contracts subject to similar risks and managed together, and each portfolio is divided into annual cohorts. The annual cohorts include contracts issued within twelve months, and they are divided into three groups based on contract profitability levels:

- a group of contracts that are onerous at initial recognition;
- a group of contracts that at initial recognition have no significant possibility of becoming onerous subsequently; and
- a group of the remaining contracts in the portfolio.

(b) Initial recognition

The Group recognizes a group of insurance contracts it issued from the earliest of the following:

- the beginning of the coverage period of the group of contracts;
- the date when the first payment from a policyholder in the group becomes due; and
- for a group of onerous contracts, when the group becomes onerous.

(c) Measurement

The Group includes in the measurement of a group of insurance contracts all the future cash flows within the boundary of each contract in the group. Cash flows are within the boundary of an insurance contract if they arise from substantive rights and obligations that exist during the reporting period in which the Group can compel the policyholder to pay the premiums or in which the Group has a substantive obligation to provide the policyholder with insurance contract services.

Insurance contracts — Contracts to which the premium allocation approach (“PAA”) is not applied

(Initial measurement)

On initial recognition, the Group measures a group of insurance contracts at the total of:

- Fulfilment cash flows

The fulfilment cash flows comprise estimates of future cash flows, an adjustment to reflect the time value of money and the financial risks related to the future cash flows, and a risk adjustment for non-financial risk (the compensation that the Group requires for bearing the uncertainty about the amount and timing of the cash flows that arises from non-financial risk).

- CSM

The CSM of a group of insurance contracts represents the unearned profit the Group will recognize as it provides services under the contracts.

The Group recognizes an onerous insurance contract on initial recognition if any cash flows arising from the contract at the date of initial recognition in total are a net outflow. In recognizing onerous contracts, the Group recognizes a loss in profit or loss for the net outflow described above and identifies the same amount as a loss component of the liability for remaining coverage.

(Subsequent measurement)

The carrying amount of a group of insurance contracts at the end of each reporting period is the sum of the liability for remaining coverage and the liability for incurred claims. The liability for remaining coverage comprises (a) the fulfilment cash flows related to services to be provided under the contracts in future periods, and (b) the remaining CSM at the reporting date. The liability for incurred claims includes the fulfilment cash flows relating to unpaid incurred claims and expenses, including claims that have been incurred but not yet reported.

The loss component is measured by allocating the subsequent changes in fulfilment cash flows on a systematic basis.

Insurance contracts — Contracts to which the PAA is applied

For insurance contracts with a coverage period of no more than one year at initial recognition, and certain insurance contracts that would not differ materially in the measurement of liability for remaining coverage from the one that would be produced when measured without applying the PAA, the Group applies the PAA for measuring a group of insurance contracts.

(Initial measurement)

The carrying amount of the liability for remaining coverage at initial recognition of each group of insurance contracts is measured at the premiums received at initial recognition less any insurance acquisition cash flows (cash flows arising from the activities of selling, underwriting and starting the group of insurance contracts that are directly attributable to the portfolio of insurance contracts to which the group belongs) allocated to the group of insurance contracts at that date.

(Subsequent measurement)

The carrying amount of the liability for remaining coverage increases through the amortization of insurance acquisition cash flows recognized as premiums received and expenses. It decreases through the recognition of insurance revenue related to services provided and the allocation of additional insurance acquisition cash flows after initial recognition.

If, at any time during the coverage period, facts and circumstances indicate that a group of insurance contracts is onerous, the Group recognizes a loss in profit or loss and increases the liability for remaining coverage to the extent that current estimates of the fulfilment cash flows related to remaining coverage exceed the carrying amount of the liability for remaining coverage.

The Group recognizes the liability for incurred claims for the group of insurance contracts at the fulfilment cash flows relating to incurred claims.

② Translations of significant assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies

• Foreign currency translation

In preparing the financial statements of each individual Group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are translated into the respective functional currencies (i.e. the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency shall be retranslated using the exchange rate at the date when the fair value was measured. The exchange differences arising from the retranslation were recognized in profit or loss, except for retranslation differences in financial instruments that are measured at fair value and changes in the fair value recognized in other comprehensive income and exchange differences arising from transactions for the purpose of hedging certain foreign exchange risks.

• Foreign operations

The assets and liabilities, including goodwill and fair value adjustments arising from business combinations, of all the Group entities that have a functional currency that is different from the presentation currency (foreign operations) are translated into the presentation currency using the rates of exchange prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses of foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency at the average exchange rates. Exchange differences are recognized as other comprehensive income.

③ Financial liabilities designated at FVTPL

An irrevocable election to measure financial liabilities at FVTPL may be made at initial recognition if the contract contains one or more embedded derivatives and the host contract is a hybrid contract where the host contract is a financial liability, or if designation as FVTPL eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch that would otherwise arise. The amount of the change in the fair value of the financial liability attributable to changes in the credit risk of the liability is recognized in other comprehensive income and the remaining change in the fair value of the liability is recognized in profit or loss.

NOTES TO CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Group adopted the following new and revised standards and interpretations from the beginning of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

Statement of standards		Summary of new standards and amendments
IFRS 17	Insurance Contracts	Revision to the definition and accounting treatment of insurance contracts

The Group had applied IFRS 4 “Insurance Contracts” until the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023. However, it has applied IFRS 17 “Insurance Contracts” (“IFRS 17”) from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024.

The date of transition to IFRS 17 was April 1, 2022 (the “date of transition”). The Group recognized the cumulative effect of applying this standard at the date of transition and retrospectively applied the standard to the consolidated financial statements for the previous period in accordance with the transitional treatment.

The Group does not present the quantitative information required by paragraph 28 (f) of IAS 8 in accordance with paragraph C3 (a) of IFRS 17. The impact of the application of IFRS 17 on retained earnings at the date of transition is presented in the consolidated statement of changes in equity as the cumulative effect of changes in accounting policies. In transitioning to IFRS 17, the Group applied the fair value approach to life insurance contracts, except for certain contracts, because it is impracticable for the Group to apply the fully retrospective approach due to a limitation in obtaining the necessary information, resulting from system development or other reasons. The Group applied the fully retrospective approach to other insurance contracts.

NOTES TO CHANGE IN PRESENTATION METHODS

“Inventories” (98,149 million yen as at March 31, 2023) and “Assets held for sale” (75,873 million yen as at March 31, 2023), which were included in “Other assets” as at March 31, 2023, and “Provisions” (43,811 million yen as at March 31, 2023) and “Liabilities directly associated with assets held for sale” (47,283 million yen as at March 31, 2023), which were included in “Other liabilities”, are presented separately from the current period due to their increased materiality.

In addition, “Accrued interest receivable” (45,492 million yen as at March 31, 2024), which was included in “Other financial assets” as at March 31, 2023, is included in “Trade and other accounts receivable” from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024, due to more appropriate presentation.

NOTES TO ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

In the preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRSs, management of the Company is required to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period of the change and subsequent future periods.

The following notes include information on accounting estimates and judgments that have a significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements.

- Fair value measurements of operational investment securities

The details are described in “MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES 4. Summary of accounting policies (1) Valuation standards and methods of significant assets ① Valuation standards and methods of financial assets (a) Classification and measurement of financial assets” and “NOTES TO FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS 2. Fair value determination of financial instruments.”

The balance of operational investment securities in the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2024 was 673,625 million yen.

- Fair value measurements and impairment on trade and other accounts receivable

The details are described in “MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES 4. Summary of accounting policies (1) Valuation standards and methods of significant assets ① Valuation standards and methods of financial assets (b) Impairment of financial assets” and “NOTES TO FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS 2. Fair value determination of financial instruments.”

The balance of trade and other accounts receivable in the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2024 was 11,606,228 million yen.

- Impairment on intangible assets

The details are described in “MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES 4. Summary of accounting policies (1) Valuation standards and methods of significant assets ② Valuation standards and methods of non-financial assets • Impairment of non-financial assets.”

The balance of intangible assets in the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2024 was 415,699 million yen.

- Insurance contract liabilities

In the life insurance business, except for certain contracts, the Group records insurance contract liabilities by estimating the present value of all cash flows from insurance contracts using assumptions, such as discount rates (interest rates), mortality, morbidity, renewal rates, business expenses, and commissions.

Projected increases in mortality, morbidity, business expenses, and commissions are assumed to reduce future net income/loss and equity through increases in future cash outflows. The balance of insurance contract liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2024 was 155,046 million yen.

- Recoverability of deferred tax assets

A deferred tax asset is recognized for the unused carryforward tax losses, unused tax credits and expected deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the unused carryforward tax losses, unused tax credits and expected deductible temporary differences can be utilized. The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset shall be reviewed at the end of each reporting period. The Group reduces the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilized. The balance of deferred tax assets in the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2024 was 19,515 million yen.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

1. Group policy and risk management system for financial instruments

The Group engages in a wide range of finance related businesses, such as financial services business (securities business, banking business, insurance business and other financial services business), asset management business, investment business and crypto asset business, to avoid excessive concentration of risk on specific entities or businesses. To operate these businesses, the Group raises funds through indirect financing such as bank borrowings, direct financing such as bond issuance and equity financing, transactions with securities financing companies, and receiving customer deposits for banking business. The Group also considers the market environment and maintains an appropriate strategy for short and long term financing.

The Group conducts trading of derivative instruments including foreign currency forward contracts, currency options, interest rate swaps, index futures and margin trading. The Group enters into foreign currency forward contracts, currency options and interest rate swap transactions primarily to provide products and services to customers and for hedge purposes. Index futures are entered into for the purpose of day trading. There are limits on the size of these transactions and the amount of risk held.

In order to maintain financial strength and appropriate operational procedures, it is the Group's basic policy of risk management to identify and analyze various risks relevant to the Group entities and strive to carry out integral risk management using appropriate methods.

2. Fair value determination of financial instruments

Fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities are determined as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents

Carrying amounts approximate the fair values due to their short-term maturities.

Trade and other accounts receivable

The fair values are determined based on the future cash inflows of receivables grouped by category discounted using interest rates adjusted for the period to maturity and credit risk. The carrying amounts of those with short-term maturities are deemed to be fair values as the carrying amounts approximate fair values.

Assets and liabilities related to securities business

With respect to loans on margin transactions included in margin transaction assets, the carrying amounts approximate the fair values as the interest rates of the loans are floating rates and reflect the market interest rate within a short period. The carrying amounts of assets and liabilities related to the securities business, except for loans on margin transactions, approximate the fair values as those assets and liabilities are settled within a short period.

With respect to trading assets and trading liabilities, the fair values of listed securities and listed derivatives are estimated based on prices quoted on stock exchanges or prices quoted by correspondent financial institutions. The fair value of securities and derivatives with no quoted prices is estimated using valuation techniques such as the discounted present value method and the Black Scholes model, depending on the type of transaction and the period to maturity.

Operational investment securities and Other investment securities

The fair values of listed equity securities are determined based on the quoted market prices in the stock exchange. The fair values of unlisted equity securities, bonds with share options and stock warrants are determined using valuation models appropriate in the circumstances including discounted cash flow analysis, pricing analysis with reference to comparable industry prices, analysis based on revenues, profits, net assets and the recent arm's-length transaction price. The fair values of bonds are determined using reasonable valuation techniques based on available information such as Reference Statistical Prices and quoted price provided by the financing banks. The fair values of investments in funds are determined at the fair values of partnership net assets based on the Group's percentage share in the contributed capital, if such fair values are available.

Other financial assets and Other financial liabilities

With respect to other financial assets and other financial liabilities, the fair values of derivative instruments are based on the prices quoted on stock exchanges, discounted present value or option valuation models, etc. The carrying amounts of those with short-term maturities are deemed to be fair values as the carrying amounts approximate fair values.

Bonds and loans payable and Trade and other accounts payable

With respect to those with floating interest rates, carrying amounts are deemed to be fair values as the interest rates of the bonds and loans, and trade and other accounts payable reflect the market interest rate within a short period and as the credit condition of the Group entities that obtained them are not expected to change significantly. With respect to those with fixed interest rates, the fair values are determined based on the future cash outflows discounted using interest rates adjusted for remaining periods and credit risk or discounted using interest rates with reference to similar types of new loans or lease transactions. For those for which a market price exists, the fair value is determined based on quoted market prices. For those with short-term maturities, carrying amounts are deemed to be fair values because the carrying amounts approximate fair values.

For financial liabilities designated at FVTPL, fair value is estimated using primarily the same methods as in "Other financial assets and other financial liabilities".

Customer deposits for banking business

The fair values of demand deposits are determined at the carrying amounts which are the amounts paid on demand at the reporting date. The fair values of time deposits and certificates of deposit are determined based on the future cash outflows discounted using interest rates adjusted for the period to maturity and credit risk. However, for the deposits with short-term maturities, carrying amounts are deemed to be fair values because the carrying amounts approximate fair values.

For financial liabilities designated at FVTPL, fair value is estimated using primarily the same methods as in "Other financial assets and other financial liabilities".

4. Categorization within the level of the fair value hierarchy

“IFRS 13 Fair Value Measurement” requires measurement of fair value to be categorized into three levels with reference to the fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making fair value measurements.

The fair value hierarchy is defined as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The level of hierarchy used in fair value measurement is determined at the lowest level with relevant significant inputs to the measurement.

A transfer between levels of the hierarchy is recognized at the date when the cause of the transfer or change in circumstances occurs.

The table below presents the assets and liabilities measured at the fair values in the consolidated statement of financial position of the Group.

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

5. Assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3

Based on the valuation methods and policies as reported to the board of directors, external evaluating agencies and appropriate individuals of the Group measure and analyze the valuation of assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The valuation results are reviewed and approved by CFO and General Manager of the Accounting and Financial Division.

The valuation techniques and unobservable inputs used for recurring and non-recurring fair value measurements of assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3 are as follows:

	Valuation Technique	Unobservable Input	Range
Trade and other accounts receivable	Income approach	Discount rate Recovery rate	0.5% — 16.9% 80.0%
Assets related to securities business	Market approach	Stock volatility Correlation (Foreign Exchange/Interest Rate)	14.7% — 90.4% (4.2%) — 9.0%
Other financial assets	Market approach	Correlation (Interest Rate/Interest Rate)	29.0% — 85.0%
		Correlation (Foreign Exchange/Interest Rate)	8.0% — 38.0%
	Income approach	Discount rate	1.2% — 1.2%
		Prepayment rates	0.0% — 10.5%
		Probability of default	1.1%
		Recovery rate	0.0% — 74.0%
		Discount rate	0.4% — 65.0%
		P/E ratio	1.5 — 45.2
		Price to sales ratio	7.7 — 10.6
		EBITDA ratio	10.6 — 40.0
Operational investment securities and other investment securities	Market approach, cost approach and income approach	Minority discount	8.3%
		Illiquidity discount	20.0% — 25.0%
		Prepayment rates	2.4% — 20.0%
		Probability of default	0.0% — 3.7%
		Recovery rate	0.0% — 100.0%
		Discount rate	0.0% — 0.1%
Bonds and loans payable	Income approach	Discount rate	1.1%
Trade and other accounts payable	Income approach	Discount rate	1.1%
Liabilities related to securities business	Market approach	Stock volatility Correlation (Foreign Exchange/Interest Rate)	14.7% — 90.4% (4.2%) — 9.0%
Customer deposits for banking business	Income approach	Discount rate	0.0% — 0.1%
Other financial liabilities	Market approach Income approach	Correlation (Interest Rate/Interest Rate)	29.0% — 85.0%
		Correlation (Foreign Exchange/Interest Rate)	8.0% — 38.0%
		Recovery rate	35.0% — 74.0%

The fair value of assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3 that is measured at fair value on a recurring basis increases (decreases) when the discount rate decreases (increases), when the recovery rate increases (decreases), when the stock volatility increases (decreases), depending on the nature of the underlying asset due to changes in the correlation coefficient, when the prepayment rate decreases (increases), when the probability of default decreases (increases), when the P/E ratio increases (decreases), when the price to sales ratio increases (decreases), when the EBITDA ratio increases (decreases), when the minority discount decreases (increases), or when the illiquidity discount decreases (increases).

With respect to the assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3, no significant impact on the fair values is assumed even if one or more of the unobservable inputs were changed to reasonably possible alternative assumptions.

The movement of assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3 measured at fair value on a recurring basis is presented as follows:

Responsibilities of Management and Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards.

Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board are responsible for overseeing the Directors' execution of duties relating to the design and operating effectiveness of the controls over the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment. In addition, we obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.
- Obtain, when performing risk assessment procedures, an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate whether the overall presentation and disclosures of the consolidated financial statements are in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards, as well as the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.
