

Subscription by Japannext Co., Ltd. to Third Party Allotment Capital Increase

February 12, 2021
Japannext Co., Ltd.

Japannext Co., Ltd. (Principle place of business: Minato-ku of Tokyo, Representative Director: Masakatsu Yamada, hereinafter, the “Company”) hereby announces that the Company has subscribed to the third party allotment capital increase conducted by Osaka Dojima Commodity Exchange (Principle place of business: Osaka City of Osaka Prefecture, hereinafter “ODE”) in connection with its corporate transformation into a joint-stock corporate, and as of today completed the payment for such investment. As a result, the Company’s voting right holding ratio will become approximately 19.3 %.

The Company is in full support of the ODE’s purpose of vitalizing the Japanese economy from Osaka, by not only handling commodities trading such as agricultural products and mining and industrial materials, but also aim to become a comprehensive exchange and handle financial instruments as well, in connection with its transition into a joint-stock corporation. The Company shall together with ODE aim to maintain a stable operation of the trading venue and maximize usability for the users, and continue our support as a shareholder with a focus on system aspects as well as wide range of other areas.

End

<Contact Information for this Press Release>

Japannext Co., Ltd. Corporate Planning Department 03-4577-0960